Faculty Review of Open eTextbooks
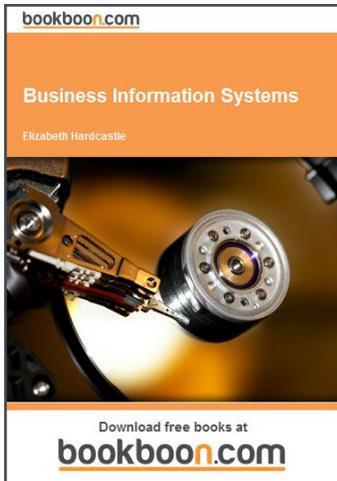

The California Open Educational Resources Council has designed and implemented a faculty review process of the free and open etextbooks showcased within the California Open Online Library for Education (www.cool4ed.org). Faculty from the California Community Colleges, the California State University, and the University of California were invited to review the selected free and open etextboks using a rubric. Faculty received a stipend for their efforts and funding was provided by the State of California, the William and Flora Hewlett Foundation, and the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation.

Overall Comments

If you were to recommend this textbook to colleagues, what merits of the textbook would you highlight?
- I would not recommend this textbook.

What areas of this textbook require improvement in order for it to be used in your courses?
- This textbook would need to be rewritten with rigor for a college-level course. The textbook is not thorough as it is only 54 pages.
- Additionally, the textbook would need to include:
    o Learning objectives
    o Introductions
    o Summaries
    o Learning activities (discussion questions; exercises; case studies).
    o Key concepts and/or terms
    o Glossary
    o Index
    o Include a glossary and index
    o Include a test bank and presentation slides for each chapter
